A. B. By will gives ſeveral legacies in the words following; "I give unto my couſin C. D.'s eldeſt ſon one hundred "pounds, and to every other child ſhe may have by N. D. four hundred pounds each when they ſhall come to the age of twenty-one years." Item, I give to my couſin E. F.'s ſon, T. F. one hundred pounds, and to every child ſhe may have by R. F. forty pounds a piece to be paid them at the age of twenty-one years.

Q. Are the adminiſtrators of ſuch of the children of C. D. and E. F. reſpectively as ſurvived teſtator, but did not attain the age of twenty-one years, entitled to the legacies given to ſuch reſpective children? Or will the ſame lapſe and ſink into the reſiduum of the teſtator's perſonal eſtate?

The adminiſtrators of ſuch of C. D.'s children as attained twenty-one years, are entitled to their reſpective legacies. As to thoſe who died before that age, I think their reſpective legacies are lapſed, and do not go to their adminiſtrators. The penning of the legacies to E. F.'s children is different, the time of coming of age being annexed, not to the legacies, but to the payment; and therefore thoſe legacies did not, I conceive, lapſe, but belong to their repreſentatives, whether the legatees died before or after their attaining twenty-one.

T. S. dies, firſt deviſing his eſtate to his ſons and the ſurvivor.

B. aſſigns to H.—H. inſiſts on *T. Q. Is widow S. entitled to dower or any ſatisfaction for the ſame from the purchaſer?

A. I think Mrs. S. if ſhe could recover dower at law, could only obtain judgment, with a ceſſet execution during the term, and that as againſt M. the purchaſer, but cannot have aid of a court of equity, in regard that he is a purchaſer of his eſtates, and therefore he ought to be protected; and as ſhe is only entitled to dower, which is a legal right, I think ſhe cannot come into a court of equity for relief againſt the vendor, in order to recover a part of the purchaſe money, ſo that by joining in the mortgage ſhe has in effect deſtroyed her right to dower.

W.* deceaſed; and alſo that the ſaid maſter ſhould examine and ſee what the ſaid J. B. paid in taking in any of the judgments in the pleadings of the ſaid cauſes mentioned, and what upon the account ſhould be found due to the ſaid B. It was decreed, that the ſame ſhould be paid to her out of the ſaid P. W.'s eſtate; And it was further ordered, that the maſter ſhould compute the principal money and intereſt due on the mortgage to the ſaid *F. * CASE.

By indenture bearing date the 18th of November, 1774, made between E. G. of the one part, and J. R. and R. W. of the other part, reciting that the ſaid E. G. was juſtly indebted to the ſaid J. R. and R. W. and others his creditors for goods and otherwiſe to the amount of one thouſand pounds, or thereabouts, which he was unable to pay; but in order to make them the beſt ſatisfaction in his power, had agreed to aſſign to the ſaid R. and W. in truſt for themſelves and others his creditors, rateably all his eſtate and effects, It was witneſſed that the ſaid E. G. in conſideration of the premiſes and of five ſhillings, Did fully and abſolutely bargain, ſell, aſſign, convey and deliver unto the ſaid J. R. and R. W. all the ſtock in trade, houſhold goods, eſtate and effects of him the ſaid E. G. whatſoever and whereſoever, To be had, holden, received, perceived and taken to the ſaid R. and W. their executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, as their property and eſtate, and to their proper uſe for ever; In truſt for themſelves and ſuch other of the lawful creditors of the ſaid E. G. rateably, who ſhould make due proof upon oath, when required, of their reſpective debts, and agree to accept of the dividend ariſing from the aſſigned premiſes in lieu of and full ſatisfaction for their ſeveral debts; and in caſe either of the creditors of the ſaid E. G. ſhould decline or refuſe to accept a dividend or proportion of the aſſigned premiſes in full ſatisfaction of his or her debt, then the dividend or proportion of ſuch creditor ſhould be in truſt for and paid to the ſaid E. G. his executors or adminiſtrators, to his and their own uſe.

By virtue of the above aſſignment, Meſſrs. R. and W. the truſtees therein, have poſſeſſed themſelves of and diſpoſed of all G.'s eſtates and effects, and have cauſed ſeveral advertiſements to be inſerted in the Bath and Briſtol Journals (where all the creditors live) requiring them to come in and prove their debts by a particular time therein mentioned, to the end they might make a dividend, and thereupon the greateſt part of G.'s creditors have brought in written, (intitled the firſt ſchedule) amounting in the whole to the ſum of ——— or thereabouts, and as to the truth and reality of every ſuch debt being ſo due, they the ſaid ſeveral creditors have agreed to make oath thereof, upon their executing of theſe preſents, before a proper perſon qualified to take the ſame: And whereas the ſaid W. R. by reaſon of many great loſſes in trade, bad debts, and other unhappy misfortunes, is now obliged to abſcond from his trade and habitation, and is rendered incapable of making full payment to his ſaid creditors of their reſpective debts; And whereas the ſaid W. R. being willing and deſirous to pay and ſatisfy to the ſaid A. and B. and all other his ſaid creditors their ſaid reſpective debts, ſo far as his houſhold goods, ſtock in trade, and debts due and owing to him will extend and amount unto, (which is computed will amount at leaſt to eight ſhillings in the pound,) hath made out a juſt and true account thereof; and hath propoſed and agreed to make an abſolute aſſignment of the ſame unto and amongſt his ſaid creditors, for and towards payment and ſatisfaction of their ſaid reſpective debts, in ſuch manner as herein after is mentioned, which ſaid account is contained in the other ſchedule hereunder written, (intitled a ſecond ſchedule,) particularly mentioned and ſet forth; and as to the truth and reality of the ſame account, he the ſaid W. R. executing thereof, in full payment, ſatisfaction and diſcharge of the ſaid ſeveral debts and ſums of money ſo now due and owing to them from the ſaid W. R. as aforeſaid, in the proportions, and according to the quantum of their reſpective debts, in ſuch manner as herein after is expreſſed; And that they the ſaid creditors, on payment thereof, will give ſuch general releaſes unto the ſaid *W. in and proved their debts, but it is imagined there are ſtill ſome outſtanding creditors who will not prove their debts, or come into the compoſition.

Q. As the truſtees have, from time to time, for the ſpace of twelve months paſt cauſed ſuch advertiſements to be inſerted in the public papers, requiring all G.'s creditors to come in and prove their debts, and are now going to make a dividend, are they obliged by the clauſe in the aſſignment for payment of the dividend of ſuch creditors who ſhould decline or refuſe to accept a dividend in full ſatisfaction of their debts to G. to retain any of the monies in their hands for G.'s uſe? Or rather, will not the truſtees be juſtified in dividing the whole effects amongſt the creditors who have come in and proved their debts, as it is apprehended they are not obliged to take notice of any debts but what are brought in and proved upon oath?

A. Suppoſing G. at the time of his aſſigning his effects to have committed no act of bankruptcy, (for, if he had, it was out of his power to put terms of acceptance to any non-concurring creditors, or to prevent their avoiding ſuch aſſignment by a commiſſion) if the value of their debts would qualify them to ſue it out. I think the medium of the truſtees to go by in making the ſtipulated dividend ought to be the value of the debts of ſuch creditors as ſhall prove their debts upon oath, after their being required ſo to do; and that the truſtees would be juſtifiable in dividing the whole of ſuch effects amongſt ſuch proving creditors, provided each would accept of a rateable dividend in full ſatisfaction of his or her whole debt; and in caſe any of ſuch proving creditors ſhould refuſe coming into ſuch acceptance, in that caſe I think that his or her proportion ought to be paid to G. as being ſo provided by the aſſignment.

But I do not think that a creditor's not coming in to prove his or her debt, purſuant to the notice by advertiſement given in the above Journals, would be ſufficient ground for excluſion, it not being ſo provided by the aſſignment. And I apprehend the beſt method to be taken by the truſtees for their indemnity, will be to cauſe an advertiſement to be inſerted in the London Gazette, ſignifying for the benefit of what creditors the effects have been aſſigned, the time and place, when and where the truſtees intended dividing, and the neat produce of the whole eſtate and effects amongſt ſuch creditors; and that ſuch of the creditors as do not ſo prove and accept, will be excluded from any dividend. And alſo to acquaint ſuch of the creditors as have not hitherto come in with ſuch advertiſement being inſerted, and with the truſtees intending to divide accordingly, and to require ſuch out-ſtanding creditors to prove and accept as above, or that otherwiſe they will be excluded. And this ſhould, I think, be done in writing, under the hands of the truſtees, and ſerved on each of ſuch out-ſtanding creditors in perſon, by one, who under a copy of ſuch notice, ſhould make a memorandum of the ſervice.

An Aſſignment of an Exchequer Long Annuity.

Recital of the purchaſe of the annuity under an act of parliament.

To all to whom theſe preſents ſhall come, Auſtin Archer of the City of London, Gentleman, Sendeth greeting. Whereas Bruen Brown, Eſquire, deceaſed, late Pay-Maſter of the Forces abroad, in purſuance of a late act of parliament (intituled An Act for raiſing monies by ſale of ſeveral annuities for carrying on the preſent war) did on or about the twentieth day of April 17—, advance and pay into the receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, the ſum of one thouſand ſix hundred pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, in conſideration whereof the ſaid Bruen Brown became intitled to an annuity or yearly ſum of four hundred pounds, to be paid quarterly to him the ſaid Bruen Brown and his aſſigns out of the Exchequer, from and after the deceaſe of Charles Cater then of London, Eſquire, and Delia Cater his wife, nominees of the ſaid Bruen Brown, for and during all the reſt and reſidue which ſhould be then to come and unexpired of and in a certain term of ninety-nine years in the ſaid act mentioned, and to be computed from the twenty-fifth day of March 17—, As by one order, No. 1000, and bearing date on or about the twentieth day of April 17—, and one tally thereunto belonging (relation being thereunto reſpectively had, may appear).

and of meſne aſſignments veſting the ſame in the aſſignor. and of the death of two nominees.

And whereas the term, eſtate and intereſt of the ſaid Bruen Brown, of, in, and to the ſaid reverſion, annuity or yearly ſum of four hundred pounds, and of, in and to the ſaid order and tally for the ſame, is ſince by divers good and ſufficient meſne aſſignments and aſſurances in the law, or otherwiſe, legally come to and veſted in the ſaid Auſtin Archer. And whereas the ſaid Charles Cater and Delia his wife, are both ſome time ſince deceaſed, by means whereof the ſaid annuity or yearly ſum of four hundred pounds is become immediately payable in poſſeſſion to him the ſaid Auſtin Archer and his aſſigns, for all the now reſt and reſidue of the ſaid term of ninety-nine years commencing as aforeſaid.

The conſideration.

Now know ye, that for and in conſideration of the ſum of eight thouſand pounds of lawful money of Great Britain to the ſaid Auſtin Archer in hand paid by Edward Ellis of Fidham in the County of Glouceſter, Eſquire, at or before the enſealing and delivery of theſe preſents, in full for the abſolute purchaſe of the ſaid annuity or yearly ſum of four hnndred pounds for all the now reſidue of the ſaid term of ninety-nine years, (the receipt and payment of which ſaid ſum of eight thouſand pounds he the ſaid Auſtin Archer doth hereby acknowledge, and thereof, and of every part thereof, doth acquit, releaſe and diſcharge the ſaid Edward Ellis, his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, and every of them for ever by theſe preſents), He the ſaid Auſtin Archer hath granted, bargained, ſold, aſſigned, transferred and ſet over, And by theſe preſents Doth grant, bargain, ſell, aſſign, transfer and ſet over unto the ſaid Edward Ellis, his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, The ſaid annuity or yearly ſum of four hundred pounds, and every part thereof, And all monies now due and payable upon, or for the ſame annuity, or any part thereof; And alſo all the eſtate, right, title, intereſt, term of years yet to come and unexpired, truſt, property, profit, claim and demand whatſoever, both in law and equity, of him the ſaid Auſtin Archer, of, in, to, or out of the ſame annnity, and every or any part thereof, by force or virtue of the ſaid act of parliament, order, tally and meſne aſſignments, or any of them, or otherwiſe howſoever, together with the ſame order, tally, and meſne aſſignments, and every of them; To have, hold, receive, perceive, take and enjoy the ſaid annuity or yearly ſum of four hundred pounds, and every part thereof, and the ſaid order and tally thereunto belonging, And all and ſingular other the premiſes hereby, or mentioned, or intended to be hereby aſſigned, And all the benefit thereof, unto the ſaid Edward Ellis, his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, from henceforth, for and during all the reſt and reſidue yet to come and unexpired of the ſaid term of ninety-nine years; And the ſaid Auſtin Archer doth hereby for himſelf, his heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, covenant, promiſe and agree to and with the ſaid Edward Ellis, his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, That he the ſaid Auſtin Archer hath not at any time heretofore done, committed or ſuffered any act, matter or thing whatſoever, whereby, or by means whereof, the ſaid annuity and premiſes mentioned or intended to be hereby aſſigned, or any part thereof, is, are, ſhall or may be impeached, charged or incumbered, in title, charge, eſtate, or otherwiſe howſoever. *Abſolute Aſſignment of ſeveral Leaſes for Terms * of Years and Ground-Rents to a Purchaſer.*

THIS Indenture of five Parts, made, &c. Between J. H. of, &c. of the firſt part, R. A. of, &c. of the ſecond part, J. S. of, &c. of the third part, (three ſeveral mortgages) J. W. of, &c. of the fourth part, and A. C. of, &c. of the fifth part. Whereas, &c. (recite the two original indentures of leaſe made to A. W. brother of the ſaid J. W. at and under the ſeveral yearly rents of three ſhillings and four-pence each)

* CASE.

THE twelfth of January 1555, R. F. by deed inrolled in Chancery, gives, grants and confirms to J. F. his brother, a tenement with the appurtenances, in, &c. to hold to ſaid J. F. his heirs and aſſigns, to the uſe of the ſaid R. F. for life; remainder to the executors and aſſigns of ſaid R. F. for two hundred years, ſans waſte; remainder to the ſaid J. F. his heirs and aſſigns.

The fourteenth of November 1560, R. F. by will (proved in the Prerogative Court, the 6th of June 1561), gives in the words following, viz.

"I will that my ſaid wife ſhall have the houſe wherein I now dwell and inhabit, in, &c. after my death, during "her natural life, without paying any rent or other thing for the ſame, repairing the ſame when need ſhall require. "After her deceaſe I will that my executors, or the ſurvivors of them, or their executors, or the executors or adminiſtra- "tors of the ſurvivors of them, ſhall have my ſaid houſe from the day of the death of my ſaid wife unto the end and "term of one hundred and ninety years next following, without impeachment of any manner of waſte."

And makes his wife A. and J. D. his executors.

The eighth of May, 4th Eliz. 1562, this will was proved in Chancery by ſaid J. D.

The 28th of May, 19th Eliz. 1577, the ſaid J. D. by his will, gives the reſidue of all his goods, chattels and leaſe, &c. unto his wife, and made her and Sir W. C. his executors.

The 11th of June 1577, the ſaid A. proved the ſaid will.

The 2d of October, 30th Eliz. 1588, A. M. widow, (relict of the ſaid R. F.) by will, proved in the Prerogative Court, on the 13th of December 1588, gives and bequeaths all her goods, chattels, debts and duties, unto her well beloved ſiſter A. D. whom ſhe makes her ſole executrix, and whom ſhe likewiſe requires to perform the laſt will of her late huſband R. F. deceaſed, concerning certain portions of the monies appointed to be paid by his ſaid will out of his houſe near, &c. wherein he dwelt, which ſaid houſe, with all her intereſt therein, ſhe gives and bequeaths unto her ſaid ſiſter, and to her aſſigns, during the term of years to come in the ſaid houſe.

The 13th of December 1588, proved by the ſaid A. D.

It is to be obſerved that the ſaid R. F. by ſaid deed of 1555, conveys ſaid premiſes to himſelf for life, remainder to his executors for two hundred years, by which it ſeems that the term was to commence on his death, and if ſo, the term expired on the 12th of January laſt.

But by his will he has deviſed the ſame premiſes to his wife for life, and after her death that the ſurvivor of his executors ſhall have the houſe for one hundred and ninety years, to commence from the death of his ſaid wife, who by the date of her will ſeems to have ſurvived ſaid D. and to have died about the year 1588, and if ſo, the term does not expire till December 1778.

Theſe premiſes being burnt down by the fire of London, there were three houſes built on the ground where they ſtood in 1677, and by divers meſne aſſignments are now become veſted for the reſidue of the ſaid term of two hundred years, years, (which is the term ſpecified in all the deeds) in Mr. F. and others who are at preſent in poſſeſſion thereof, and who derive their title as is apprehended as well under the will which continues the term till December, 1778, as under the ſaid deeds of 12th of January 1555.

But as the matter ſeems to be complicated, the preſent poſſeſſors are deſirous of your opinion on the following queries,

Q. I. Whether they are to take under the deed of the 12th of January 1555, or for the reſidue of the term of two hundred years under the will of Mr. F. for the term of one hundred and ninety years to commence on the death of his wife ?

By the deed the term commences at his death, and therefore the teſtator could not diſpoſe of the houſe but during the term which commenced at his death.

Q. II. If they take under the deed, and the term of two hundred years ſhould be conſidered as excepted, will it be adviſeable, (as they are in poſſeſſion,) to join in a deed of bargain and ſale thereof to ſome friend in truſt for them, with a covenant to levy a fine, and ſo make a good title to themſelves of the fee thereof, by five years non-claim, or what other way will be moſt adviſeable for the parties to ſecure the title and poſſeſſion thereof in themſelves ?

I think a conveyance of the eſtate by the leſſee or term or for a greater eſtate then he has, is a diſſeiſin, and therefore if a conveyance is made and a fine levied, and five years paſs, I think it will be a bar to the reverſioner or remainder man.

Q. III. If they take under the will and the term of one hundred and ninety years, (though the ſame will not expire in that caſe till 1778,) yet as the preſent poſſeſſors would then be in by title, what method will be moſt adviſeable for them to take, either now, or before the expiration of the term, to reduce the ſame into a fee-ſimple ? And whether by purſuing the above meaſures or what other ; and in caſe a feoffment ſhould be adviſed, will livery and ſeiſin of the key of any one of the houſes be ſufficient for the whole, or muſt the key of every one of them be delivered.

This is anſwered before, and as the tenant is in poſſeſſion, any conveyance will do as well as a feoffment, but if livery be made, the key of each houſe, or livery of each houſe muſt be made.

C. WALLER.
February 20, 1756.

March 3, 1756, Mr. Waller was of opinion that the will was only a voluntary act which could not defeat the deed, that the propereſt method would be to let the term run out which will be in 1761, and then for any one of the preſent leſſees to make a conveyance by leaſe and releaſe to ſome friend of ſaid premiſes, with a covenant to levy a fine, and on levying a fine thereof, and five years paſs, it will be a bar to the reverſioner or remainder man.

Aſſignment of Equity of Redemption of ſeveral Leaſehold Premiſes from Aſſignees of a Bankrupt to the Adminiſtrator of a Mortgagee, the Mortgage Money and Intereſt (Ground-Rent being in Arrear, and Houſes unfiniſhed) being more than they were worth.

THIS Indenture, &c. Between E. R. of, &c. and L. H. of, &c. (ſurviving aſſignees nominated and appointed in a commiſſion of bankruptcy lately awarded againſt C. W. of, &c. and T. C. of, &c. Carpenters and partners) of the one part, and the Right Honourable T. Earl of P. and M. (adminiſtrator of all and ſingular the goods, chattels, rights, credits and effects of his late ſiſter the Honourable the Lady R. H. late of, &c. ſpinſter, deceaſed) of the other part. Whereas, &c. (Recitals of the firſt leaſe, of a piece of ground and meſſuage thereon, No. 7, in M. Row, in T. Then the ſecond leaſe, of another piece of ground and eight meſſuages, &c. in the ſame place:) And whereas by indenture of aſſignment, by way of mortgage, &c. (Then the mortgage of the two houſes for three hundred pounds.) And whereas by one other indenture of leaſe, &c. (Then the third leaſe of the ſix houſes, &c.) And whereas, &c. (Then the mortgage of the third houſe for one hundred pounds) as in and by the ſaid ſeveral in part recited indentures of leaſe, and indentures of aſſignment thereof (all duly regiſtered) relation being to them reſpectively had, more fully may appear: And whereas the ſaid ſeveral ſums of three hundred pounds and one hundred pounds ſo ſecured to the ſaid Lady R. in manner as aforeſaid, were not to her paid on the ſeveral days in the reſpective proviſoes of the ſaid recited indentures of aſſignment appointed for payment thereof, whereby the eſtates in law of the ſaid C. W. and T. C. of and in the ſaid three ſeveral pieces of ground, meſſuages or tenements and premiſes, thereby aſſigned, became abſolutely veſted in her the ſaid Lady R. H. for the reſidue of the ſaid ſeveral term of years therein to come and unexpired: And whereas his preſent Majeſty's commiſſion, &c. (to the like effect as in precedent aſſignment, &c.) And whereas in or about the month of December now laſt paſt, the ſaid Lady R. H. departed this life inteſtate, and letters of adminiſtration of all and ſingular her goods and chattels have been duly granted unto the ſaid T. Earl of P. out of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury; by virtue whereof he the ſaid Earl is now intitled unto the eſtate and intereſt late of her the ſaid Lady R. H. of and in the ſaid ſeveral mortgaged premiſes, and alſo of, in and to the reſpective principal ſums of three hundred pounds and one hundred and ten pounds, and all intereſt now due for the ſame: And whereas on the day of the date hereof there is juſtly due and owing to the ſaid Earl, as adminiſtrator of the ſaid Lady R. H. by virtue of the ſaid ſeveral recited ſecurities to her made as aforeſaid for principal and intereſt monies, in the whole the ſum of ——— or thereabouts; which ſum (in regard no ground-rent hath been ever paid for any part of the ſaid mortgaged premiſes; and that the ſame being untenanted and not near finiſhed, and that there muſt be a conſiderable ſum forthwith laid out and expended by the ſaid Earl to finiſh the ſame, or elſe the ſame will run to ruin) ſo due to the ſaid Earl as aforeſaid, is much more than the premiſes are worth to be ſold, or any perſon or perſons will give for the purchaſe thereof: And whereas they the ſaid E. R. and H. H. by virtue of the ſaid laſt recited indenture of aſſignment, and as ſurviving aſſignees of the ſaid ſtatute, are now intitled to the equity of redemption of the ſaid mortgaged premiſes; but they for the reaſons aforeſaid have declined the ſame, and being fully ſatisfied that the ſaid ſum of ——— ſo now due to the ſaid Earl thereon as aforeſaid, is more than they or any other perſon will give for the purchaſe thereof; and alſo in regard that the ſaid Earl, as of Hilary Term now laſt paſt, hath brought his bill in the High Court of Chancery againſt them to foreclоſe their equity of redemption therein; and to the intent to ſtop all further proceedings therein, and future charges touching the ſame, they the ſaid E. R. and H. H. in purſuance of their beforementioned agreement, and to the end the ſaid ſuit in Chancery ſo brought againſt them as aforeſaid may end and determine, and in conſideration of the ſum of ——— ſo now due and owing to him the ſaid Earl in manner as aforeſaid, and alſo in conſideration of the ſum of twenty-one pounds of, &c. to them the ſaid E. R. and H. H. or one of them in hand well and truly paid by the ſaid T. Earl of P. at or before the executing hereof (which ſum of ——— ſo due to the ſaid Earl as aforeſaid, and the ſaid ſum of twenty-one pounds ſo by him now paid, making together the ſum of ———) they the ſaid E. R. and H. H. do hereby agree and declare the ſame to be in full for the abſolute purchaſe of all their eſtate, right, title, intereſt and equity of redemption of, in and to the before recited mortgaged and herein after aſſigned premiſes, the receipt of which the ſaid twenty-one pounds they the ſaid E. R. and H. H. do hereby ſeverally acknowledge, and thereof and of every part and parcel thereof do reſpectively acquit, exonerate and diſcharge the ſaid T. Earl of P. his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns for ever by theſe preſents; and for divers other good cauſes and valuable conſiderations them thereunto eſpecially moving, They the ſaid E. R. and *H. *Aſſignment by the Aſſignee under a Commiſſion of Bankruptcy (by the Conſent and Direction of the reſt of the Creditors) of the * Bankrupt's Effects, to one of the Creditors, who (by Agreement) advances eight Shillings in the Pound, which the other Creditors agree to accept.*

THIS Indenture made, &c. Between W. P. of, &c. (the aſſignee under the commiſſion,) of the firſt part, D. N. late of, &c. (againſt whom a commiſſion of bankruptcy hath been lately awarded) of the ſecond part, P. N. of, &c. T. C. and J. G. of, &c. T. N. of, &c. D. B. of, &c. B. H. of, &c. R. T. of, &c. and J. W. of, &c. creditors of the ſaid D. N. of the third part, and M. H. of, &c. (Truſtee) of the fourth part. Whereas his Majeſty's Commiſſion under the Great Seal of Great Britain, grounded upon the ſeveral ſtatutes made concerning bankrupts, bearing date at Weſtminſter the 4th day of July laſt paſt, hath been awarded againſt the ſaid D. N. directed to N. G. T. L. and B. J. Eſquires, J. W. J. B. and J. N. commiſſioners in the ſaid commiſſion named, thereby giving full power and authority unto them the ſaid commiſſioners, four or three of them, to execute the ſame; as by the ſaid commiſſion may more fully appear: And whereas the major part of the ſaid commiſſioners having began to put the ſaid commiſſion in execution, and upon due examination of witneſſes, and otherwiſe, found that the ſaid D. N. for a year then laſt paſt and upwards uſed and exerciſed the trade and buſineſs of a victualler and dealer in horſes, and bought, ſold and traded in buying and ſelling, and endeavoured to get his living thereby, as others of his trade and buſineſs uſed to do, and by that means became juſtly and truly indebted to the ſaid W. P. in the ſum of four hundred and thirty-nine pounds four ſhillings and ſix-pence for goods ſold and delivered, and in the further ſum of forty pounds for money lent, and to divers other perſons his creditors, parties hereto, in ſeveral ſums of money; and that the ſaid D. N. in the judgment of the major part of the ſaid commiſſioners, had become a bankrupt, to all intents and purpoſes, within the compaſs, true intent and meaning of the ſeveral ſtatutes made concerning bankrupts, or within ſome or one of them, before the date and ſuing forth of the ſaid commiſſion: And whereas the ſaid T. L. J. W. and J. B. (being the major part of the ſaid commiſſioners in the ſaid commiſſion named) Did by examination upon oath of the ſaid D. N. and otherwiſe, find that the ſaid *D. And whereas purſuant to an advertiſement in the London Gazette for that purpoſe inſerted, the creditors of the ſaid D. N. appeared at a meeting of the major part of the ſaid commiſſioners for that purpoſe, at Guildhall, London; and the ſaid W. P. being by the major part of the ſaid D. P. was nominated and choſen to be aſſignee of the eſtate and effects of the ſaid D. N. according to the form of the ſtatute in that caſe made and provided: And whereas by indenture of aſſignment bearing date on or about the — day of —— now laſt paſt, and made or mentioned to be made between the ſaid T. L. Eſquire, and the ſaid J. W. and J. B. Gentleman of the one part, and the ſaid W. P. of the other part, (reciting as herein before is recited) It is witneſſed, that the ſaid commiſſioners (parties thereto) by force and virtue of the ſaid commiſſion, and of the ſeveral ſtatutes whereupon the ſame was grounded, and in conſiderations therein contained, by and on the part and behalf of the ſaid *W. And whereas, ſince the making and executing of the ſaid indenture of aſſignment, the ſaid T. N. one of the creditors of the ſaid bankrupt, and a party hereto, hath propoſed to the reſt of the ſaid creditors of the ſaid bankrupt to advance and pay to them reſpectively the ſum, and after the rate of eight ſhillings for every pound ſterling, and ſo in proportion for every greater or leſſer ſum to them ſeverally and reſpectively due and owing from the ſaid bankrupt, upon the goods, debts, effects and perſonalty of the ſaid bankrupt, aſſigned as aforeſaid to, and now remaining unconverted into money, and not diſpoſed of, in the hands of the ſaid aſſignees, together with the produce of ſuch debts and effects as have already been made or received, after deduction of all charges and expences of and attending the ſaid commiſſion and the execution thereof, and of the aſſigned truſt being paid, aſſigned and transferred, to, or to the order of the ſaid *T. An Aſſignment (by the Direction of the Court of Chancery) of a Reverſionary Intereſt in South-Sea Annuities, which had been transferred to Truſtees as a Security for Payment of an Annuity.

The parties.

THIS Indenture Tripartite, made the nineteenth day of June, in the nineteenth year, &c. and in the year of our Lord 1779, Between A. A. of, &c. Eſquire, one of the Maſters of the High Court of Chancery of the firſt part, B. A. of, &c. Eſquire, of the ſecond part, and D. A. of, &c. Eſquire, and E. E. of the pariſh of P. in the county of Glouceſter, Eſquire, of the third part.

An indenture recited;

Whereas by indenture tripartite, bearing date on or about the twenty-ninth of July 1774, and made or mentioned to be made between the ſaid A. A. of the firſt part, B. B. of the pariſh of C. in the ſaid county of G. Eſquire, of the ſecond part, and the ſaid D. A. (a perſon nominated by the ſaid A. A.) and the ſaid E. E. (a perſon nominated by the ſaid B. B.) of the third part, third part, reciting as therein is recited, whereby the firſt party hereto granted an annuity to a grantee therein named.

And for the conſiderations therein mentioned, the ſaid A. A. did for himſelf, his heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, covenant, grant and agree to and with the ſaid B. B. his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, that he the ſaid A. A. his heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, ſhould and would well and truly pay, or cauſe to be paid unto the ſaid B. B. and his aſſignees, for and during the term of his natural life, one annuity, yearly rent or ſum of ſix hundred pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, free and clear of and from all taxes, charges and deductions whatſoever, parliamentary or otherwiſe, the ſame annuity to be paid and payable at, or upon the four moſt uſual feaſts or days of payment in the year: (that is to ſay,) the feaſts of St. Michael the Archangel, the Birth of our Lord, the Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary, and the Nativity of St. John the Baptiſt, by even and equal portions; the firſt payment thereof to begin and be made upon the feaſt-day of Saint Michael the Archangel next enſuing the date of the ſame indenture;

payable quarterly.

and transferred (for ſecuring it) South-Sea Annuities to two truſtees the third parties hereto,

And reciting that the ſaid A. A. for the better ſecuring the payment of the ſaid annuity, yearly rent or ſum of ſix hundred pounds to the ſaid B. B. for his life in manner aforeſaid, had, on or before the day of the date of the ſame indenture, transferred unto the ſaid D. A. and E. E. the ſum of twelve thouſand pounds in the joint ſtock of the South-Sea Annuities, upon truſt to permit the grantor to receive the produce till default of payment.

It was in and by the ſaid indenture declared and agreed by and between all the parties thereto, that the ſaid ſum of twelve thouſand pounds South-Sea Annuities ſo transferred to the ſaid D. A. and E. E. aforeſaid, was and were ſo transferred to them upon the Truſts herein after mentioned; (that is to ſay,) upon Truſt, that they the ſaid D. A. and E. E. and the ſurvivor of them, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, ſhould permit and ſuffer, and do all and every act and thing which ſhould be proper and ſufficient to enable the ſaid A. A. his executors and adminiſtrators, to receive and take the yearly intereſt, dividends and produce of the ſaid twelve thouſand pounds South-Sea Annuities as the ſame ſhould ariſe and become due, to and for his and their own uſe and benefit, until default ſhould be made of or in payment of the ſaid annuity, yearly rent or ſum of ſix hundred pounds or any part thereof, by the ſpace of twenty-eight days next over or after any of the ſaid feaſts, whereon the ſame ought to be paid as aforeſaid; and on default of payment to raiſe and pay the annuity.

And upon further Truſt, that in caſe the ſaid annuity of ſix hundred pounds or any part thereof, ſhould be behind or unpaid to the ſaid B. B. or his aſſigns by the ſpace of twenty-eight days next after any of the feaſts aforeſaid, then and ſo often they the ſaid D. A. and E. E. or the ſurvivor of them, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, ſhould by and out of the yearly intereſt, dividends and produce of the ſaid twelve thouſand pounds South-Sea Annuities, or by ſale of any or a competent part of the ſame annuities, or by ſuch other ways or means as they the ſame truſtees ſhould think fit, raiſe and levy ſuch ſum and ſums of money as ſhould be ſufficient from time to time to anſwer, pay and ſatisfy unto the ſaid B. B. and his aſſigns during his natural life, the ſaid annuity of ſix hundred pounds, or ſo much thereof as ſhould from time to time ſo happen to be in arrear and unpaid, together with ſuch coſts and charges as the ſaid B. B. or the ſaid truſtees, or any or either of them, or any or either of their executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, ſhould ſuſtain or be put unto, for or by reaſon of the non-payment of the ſaid annuity, or any part thereof, at the days and times, and in manner therein before in that behalf covenanted and agreed upon, and ſhould pay and diſpoſe of the ſame accordingly.

Proviſo (on the death of the grantee, and payment of arrears) to re-transfer what ſhould remain;

Provided, and it was thereby further declared and agreed by all the parties to the ſame indenture, that from and after the deceaſe of the ſaid B. B. and payment of all arrears which ſhould be then due of the ſaid annuity, yearly rent or ſum of ſix hundred pounds, (if any ſuch ſhould then be) together with all coſts and expences attending the execution of the aforeſaid truſts, then and immediately thereupon, or ſo ſoon after as conveniently might be, they the ſaid D. A. and E. E. or the ſurvivor of them, or the executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns of ſuch ſurvivor, ſhould at the requeſt, coſts and charges of the ſaid A. A. his executors or adminiſtrators, re-transfer and make over the ſaid ſum of twelve thouſand pounds South-Sea Annuities, or ſo much thereof as ſhould then remain undiſpoſed of, for the purpoſes aforeſaid, and all dividends or intereſt then due upon, or for the ſame or any part thereof, unto him the ſaid A. A. his executors and adminiſtrators, to and for his and their own uſe and benefit.

and the grantor covenanted with the grantee to replace in caſe of any deficiency;

And for the conſiderations, ends and purpoſes aforeſaid, the ſaid A. A. did, in and by the ſame indentures, for himſelf, his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, further covenant, promiſe, grant and agree to and with the ſaid B. B. his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, that in caſe at any time then after during the natural life of the ſaid B. B. any part of the ſaid twelve thouſand pounds South-Sea Annuities ſhould be ſold or diſpoſed of, or that the price or value of South-Sea Annuities, ſhould ſink or fall ſo, and in ſuch ſort as the ſaid twelve thouſand pounds South-Sea Annuities ſhould in the judgment of the ſame truſtees, or the ſurvivor of them, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, be inſufficient for ſecuring the payment of the ſaid annuity, yearly rent or ſum of ſix hundred pounds, to the ſaid B. B. for the term of his natural life, in manner aforeſaid, then and in both or either of the ſaid caſes, he the ſaid A. A. his heirs, executors or adminiſtrators, ſhould and would at his and their own coſts and charges immediately upon the requeſt of the ſaid B. B. transfer and make over, or procure to be transferred and made over unto the ſaid truſtees, or the ſurvivor of them, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, upon the truſts, and for the intents and purpoſes aforeſaid, ſo much more annuities in the ſaid South-Sea Company, or ſo much capital ſtock in the Bank of England, South-Sea Company, or Eaſt-India Company, or ſuch ſum and ſums of principal money ſecured upon ſome government, or other good and ſufficient ſecurity or ſecurities, at intereſt, as they the ſame truſtees, or the ſurvivor of them, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, ſhould from time to time think ſufficient and neceſſary to be added to the ſaid twelve thouſand thouſand pounds South Sea Annuities, or ſo much thereof as ſhould remain unſold as aforeſaid, thereby the better to ſecure the payment of the ſaid annuity, or yearly ſum of ſix hundred pounds to the ſaid Bruen Ball for his life in manner aforeſaid; In which ſaid recited indenture it was (among other things) provided and agreed by and between all the ſaid parties thereto, that in caſe the ſaid twelve thouſand pounds South Sea Annuities, or any part thereof, or ſuch other ſtock or ſtocks, or ſum or ſums of money, upon ſecurity or ſecurities, at intereſt, as were therein before covenanted and agreed to be transferred to the ſaid truſtees, or the ſurvivor of them, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, for the purpoſes, and upon the truſts and contingencies aforeſaid, or any of them, or any part thereof, ſhould at any time then after during the natural life of the ſaid B. B. be redeemed or paid off by authority of Parliament, or otherwiſe ſhould be paid in or come to the hands of the ſame truſtees, then and in ſuch caſe, and ſo often, it ſhould and might be lawful for them, and the ſurvivor of them, his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, from time to time during the natural life of the ſaid B. B. to lend and place out the monies ſo paid in or come to their hands, or any part thereof, with the conſent and approbation of the ſaid B. B. and A. A. if both then living; And in caſe the ſaid A. A. ſhould be then dead, then with the conſent and approbation of the ſaid B. B. upon any public or private ſecurity or ſecurities, at intereſt, or to inveſt the ſame, or any part thereof, in the purchaſe of ſtock in any of the public funds or companies, upon the Truſts, and ſubject to the proviſoes and agreements aforeſaid, as by the ſaid recited indenture, reference being thereunto had, may (among other things) more fully and at large appear. And whereas by an order of the High Court of Chancery made on or about the 10th day of March now laſt paſt, it was ordered, at the deſire of Mr. Attorney General, on behalf of the ſuitors of the ſaid court, and by conſent of the ſaid A. A. that the declaration of truſt of the ſaid twelve thouſand pounds South Sea Annuity Stock, executed by the ſaid D. A. and E. E. when the ſaid ſtock was transferred to them for ſecuring the ſaid ſix hundred pounds per annum to the ſaid *B. Letter of attorney.

* Bonds being things in action, are not in their nature aſſignable, though aſſignments are frequently made of them; but as the aſſignee cannot put the ſame in ſuit in his own name, there is always a letter of attorney inſerted for his receiving or ſuing for the money, &c. in the aſſignor's name, conſequently in a legal ſenſe, the whole amounts to little more than a letter of attorney; and yet the paper, parchment and wax of a bond, &c. may be aſſigned, and the aſſignee may keep or cancel it; but in ſome caſes by ſtatutes, a bond may be aſſigned, and the aſſignee may ſue upon it in his own name; as in bankruptcy and bail-bonds.——See the Theoretical part of this work.

CASE.

A. B. being tenant in tail, levied a fine and ſuffered a recovery, but did not declare the uſes.

Quere, If the fine and recovery will operate in law?

I conceive B. was tenant in tail, and could make a tenant to the præcipe, and bar the remainder, and the fine * is a good conveyance to make a tenant to the præcipe, and the recovery ſuffered thereupon by a writ of entry brought againſt the conuſee, and the vouching the conuſor, is good, without any deed to declare the uſes, ſince thereby A. without any direction of the uſe, will, by operation of law, leave a fee ſimple.

Bargain and Sale to make a Tenant to the * Præcipe for ſuffering a Recovery; the Uſe declared to the Granter and his Heirs.

Parties.

THIS Indenture Tripartite made the 19th day of June, in the nineteenth year, &c. and in the year of our Lord 1779, Between Andrew Alkin of London, Gentleman, grandſon and heir of Andrew Alkin, late Citizen and Mercer, of London, deceaſed, and only ſon and heir of Benedict Alkin,

* C A S E.

N. H. by will, executed in the preſence of three witneſſes, deviſes in the words following, Firſt, I give and deviſe to my loving wife, the houſe, and out-houſes and appurtenances wherein I now dwell, with the orchard and homeſtead, and

Alkin, Gentleman, alſo deceaſed (who was ſecond ſon of the ſaid Andrew Alkin deceaſed) and which ſaid Andrew Alkin, party hereto, is alſo nephew and heir of Clement Alkin, late of Leghorn in Italy, Merchant, alſo deceaſed (who was eldeſt ſon and heir of the ſaid Andrew Alkin deceaſed) and alſo nephew and heir of Andrew Alkin, Gentleman, alſo deceaſed, who was the third and youngeſt ſon of the ſaid Andrew Alkin the

and all lands, meadows and paſture thereunto belonging, lying in the pariſh of C. and alſo the lands I bought of E. T. called, &c. To hold all the ſaid lands and tenements to my ſaid wife, during the term of her natural life; and after her deceaſe, I give and deviſe the ſame, (except ſuch lands as are afterwards given and deviſed otherwiſe) unto my couſin N. H. ſon of D. H. late of C. deceaſed, for his life, upon the proviſo and limitations herein after made and expreſſed; and after the determination and becoming void of that eſtate, I give and deviſe the ſame unto my couſins D. F. and J. T. and their heirs during the life of the ſaid N. H. upon truſt only to ſupport the contingent remainders herein after limited, from being deſtroyed; and from and after the death of the ſaid N. H. then to the heirs of the body of the ſaid N. and in default of ſuch heirs, to his brother D. H. for his life; then to the ſaid D. F. and J. T. and their heirs, for the life of the ſaid D. H. upon truſt as aforeſaid; then to the heirs of the body of the ſaid D. H. and for want of ſuch heirs, then to W. F. ſon of the ſaid D. F. for his life; then to the ſaid D. F. and J. T. and their heirs during the life of the ſaid W. F. upon truſt as aforeſaid; then to the heirs of the body of the ſaid W. F. and for want of ſuch heirs, to D. F. the younger ſon of the ſaid D. F. for life; then to the ſaid truſtees and their heirs during the life of the ſaid D. F. the younger, upon truſt as aforeſaid; then to the heirs of the body of the ſaid D. F. the younger, and for want of ſuch heirs, to E. F. the daughter of the ſaid D. F. the elder for her life; then to the ſaid truſtees and their heirs, during the life of the ſaid E. upon truſt as aforeſaid; then to the heirs of the body of the ſaid E. and for want of ſuch heirs, to A. H. daughter of D. H. of C. deceaſed, for her life; and then to the truſtees and their heirs during the life of the ſaid A. upon truſt as aforeſaid; then to the heirs of the body of the ſaid A. and for want of ſuch heirs, to my right heirs for ever.

Item. I do give and deviſe unto the ſaid D. F. and J. F. and to their executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, my leaſehold, called the M. &c. upon truſt, that my wife ſhall enjoy the ſame for ſo long of the ſaid terms as ſhe ſhall live, and afterwards upon truſt, that the ſame ſhall be held and enjoyed by ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall from time to time be entitled to the poſſeſſion of the freehold lands and tenements herein before deviſed, according to the ſeveral limitations thereof herein before by me made.

Teſtator alſo deviſes in the following words: Item, " I give and deviſe my cloſe, called G. &c. unto my couſin D. H. upon the proviſo herein after expreſſed for his life; then to the aforeſaid D. F. and J. T. and their heirs during the life of the ſaid D. H. in truſt only to preſerve the contingent remainders herein after limited from being deſtroyed; then to the heirs of the body of the ſaid D. H. and for want of ſuch heirs, to his brother N. H. for life; then to the truſtees aforeſaid, during the life of the ſaid N. upon truſt only as aforeſaid; then to the heirs of the body of the ſaid N. and for want of ſuch heirs, to the heirs of the body of W. F. and for want of ſuch heirs, to the heirs of the body of D. F. and for want of ſuch heirs, to the heirs of the body of E. F. and for want of ſuch heirs, to my right heirs for ever.

In the firſt deviſe, N. H. the tenant for life, on deceaſe of teſtator's wife, ſurvived his brother D. H. W. F. D. F. the younger, E. F. and A. H. and is ſince dead without iſſue, his brother D. H. W. F. and D. F. the younger, alſo died without leaving iſſue, but E. F. left iſſue ſtill living. The firſt deviſed premiſes have been in the poſſeſſion of N. H. for near thirty years.

Query. Therefore, under the firſt deviſe, and the deviſe to truſtees to preſerve the contingent remainders, could N. H. himſelf, by recovery, bar the ſeveral remainders and limitations overfor de fault of heirs of his body, ſo as to make a good title, and do not the leaſehold premiſes, deviſed to D. F. and J. T. their executors, &c. upon truſt, to be enjoyed by the ſame perſons and under the ſame limitations as are expreſſed as to the freehold under the deviſe thereof, now belong to the iſſue of E. F. and is not the repreſentative of the ſurviving truſtee bound to aſſign over the ſame?

Anſwer. The will of N. H. is very full ſtated, yet it cannot be collected from any part of it, that the legal eſtate in fee was outſtanding in any mortgagee or truſtee; and in caſe the teſtator was ſeiſed of ſuch legal eſtate in fee-ſimple, I am of opinion that N. H. the teſtator's couſin, might, by a proper deed, make a tenant to the præcipe, and, by a recovery ſuffered thereof, effectually bar all the remainders limited by the will, acquire an abſolute dominion over the eſtate, and conſequently make a good title to a purchaſer. The intention of the teſtator indiſputably was, that his couſin N. ſhould be only tenant for life; he has interpoſed truſtees to preſerve contingent remainders, but the miſchief is, that there are not any contingent remainders to be preſerved, and the rule of law (which, through a period of ſome centuries, has acquired ſtrength and ſtability) is, that whenever the anceſtor, by any gift, deviſe or conveyance takes an eſtate of freehold, and in the ſame gift or conveyance an eſtate is limited mediately or immediately to his heirs in tail, the word, heirs, is a word of limitation of the eſtate tending to enlarge the firſt eſtate to an eſtate tail, and not a word of purchaſe. The leaſehold part, after the death of the teſtator's wife, is directed to be held and enjoyed by ſuch perſon as ſhould be entitled to the poſſeſſion of the freehold lands, according to the ſeveral limitations made thereof by the will, and as thoſe limitations gave an eſtate tail to N. H. I incline to think that he was entitled to the leaſeholds for all the reſidue of the terms, and though he did not call for the legal eſtate, yet the poſſeſſion of thirty years has, I think, eſtabliſhed the title of his executors or deviſee.

In the ſecond deviſe the ſaid N. H. the ſecond tenant for life, as before, ſurvived the other perſons to whom the eſtate was limited in manner as above, no one leaving any iſſue but E. F.

Query. Under that deviſe and the deviſe to truſtees to preſerve the contingent remainders, could the ſaid N. H. himſelf, by recovery, bar the remainders and limitations over for default of heirs of his body, ſo as to make a good title to the deviſed premiſes?

Anſwer. If D. H. died without iſſue, and without having ſuffered a recovery, then I clearly conceive that N. H. being in actual poſſeſſion, might ſuffer a recovery, and bar the remainder to the heirs of his body, and all the ſubſequent remainders, unleſs the legal eſtate in fee was outſtanding, and not in the teſtator at the time of his death: Courts of Equity do all they can to effectuate the intention of the teſtator, and if N. H. had been obliged to come into equity, and pray a conveyance of the legal eſtate from a mortgagee in fee, or a truſtee, he would have been deemed tenant for life only of ſuch truſt eſtate. The intention would then have taken place, and not the rule of law; all which is fully illuſtrated, and the diverſity between the deviſe of a legal eſtate and of a truſt eſtate, conſidered in the caſe of † Papillon and Voice, William's Reports, page 478.

THIS Indenture Tripartite, made, &c. Between, &c. Witneſſeth, that the ſaid J. A. and M. his wife, and G. A. for the barring all eſtates-tail and remainders over, of and in the meſſuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments herein after mentioned, and for and in conſideration of the ſum

* CASE.

3d and 4th of March, 1745, By indentures of leaſe and releaſe of thoſe dates made between S. B. ſpinſter, only daughter and heir of G. B. and S. his wife, both deceaſed, of the firſt part, B. B. of the ſecond part, and S. H. and W. D. of the third part, reciting a marriage intended between ſaid B. B. and S. B. It is Witneſſed that for ſettling the hereditaments after mentioned, to uſes after expreſſed, and for other valuable conſiderations ſhe ſaid S. B. Did grant, releaſe and convey unto ſaid H. and D. their heirs and aſſigns for ever, a meſſuage, &c. To hold to ſaid H. and D. their heirs and aſſigns for ever; to the uſe of ſaid S. B. her heirs and aſſigns, until ſaid intended marriage ſolemnized; and after ſuch ſolemnization, to the uſe of ſaid S. B. and her aſſigns for life, ſans waſte, remainder to ſaid H. and D. and their heirs during life of S. B. in truſt to preſerve contingent remainders; and after deceaſe of ſaid S. B. to the uſe of ſaid B. B. intended huſband of ſaid S. and his aſſigns for life; and after deceaſe of ſurvivor of ſaid S. and B. to the uſe of the heirs male of the body of ſaid S. by ſaid B. her intended huſband lawfully to be begotten; and for want of ſuch iſſue, to the uſe of the heirs female of the body of ſaid S. by ſaid B. lawfully to be begotten; and for want of ſuch iſſue, to the uſe of ſaid H. and D. their executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns for five hundred years, upon truſts after mentioned; and after expiration or ſooner determination of ſaid term, to the uſe of ſaid S. B. her heirs and aſſigns for ever: the truſt for the term is declared to be that, if ſaid B. and S. ſhould have any other child or children beſides an eldeſt or only ſon of their bodies begotten, that then ſaid B. and S. ſhall and may by any deed, inſtrument or writing by them jointly executed, in the preſence of two or more credible witneſſes, or the ſurvivor of them by will, charge the premiſes with any ſum of money, not exceeding two hundred pounds, for benefit of ſuch your child or children by ſuch ſhares and proportions, and in ſuch manner and form as ſaid B. and S. by ſuch deed as aforeſaid, ſhall give, limit, direct or appoint, and for want of ſuch deed or will, ſaid term to be void; the ſaid deed is executed by all parties, the ſaid marriage took effect, and ſaid B. and S. are both living, and have iſſue, ſons and daughters, their eldeſt ſon hath attained his age of twenty-one years, the ſaid B. and S. are deſirous of ſuffering a recovery of ſaid premiſes, to the uſe of B. in fee, and the eldeſt ſon (if neceſſary) is willing to join.

Query. Can ſaid B. and S. and their eldeſt ſon, or can B. and S. without their ſaid ſon, bar the eſtate tail created by the before ſtated indenture of ſettlement, by common, recovery, and muſt the ſame be with double or treble voucher, and who muſt be the vouchees? Can a good tenant to the præcipe be made without the truſtees, joining in the conveyance for that purpoſe? And muſt the tenant to the præcipe be made by fine on account of S. B. being a feme covert, or will a bargain and ſale, or leaſe and releaſe without a fine be ſufficient?

A. I am of opinion that in order to make a clear and indiſputable title to a purchaſer the tenant to the præcipe ſhould in this caſe be made by a fine to be levied by B. and S. his wife, and that the uſes of ſuch fine ſhould be declared to A. B. and his heirs, to the intent and purpoſe to make him perfect tenant, &c. for a recovery with treble vouchers, wherein B. B. and his wife ſhould be firſt vouchees, their eldeſt ſon ſecond vouchee, who muſt vouch the common vouchee.

This mode becomes adviſeable from the circumſtance of the huſband being only ſeized in right of his wife, who has the intention firſt eſtate of freehold; Secondly, by the wife's having an eſtate in tail male according to the old law, * yet leſt the ſhould govern, and ſhe ſhould be deemed tenant for life only, with remainder to her firſt and other ſons as purchaſers, I would adviſe that the eldeſt ſon may be vouched in the recovery; the covenant to levy a fine may be introduced either in a bargain and ſale to be inrolled, or in a releaſe from the father, mother and ſon, to the tenant to the præcipe, and for more effectually limiting the lands, &c. to ſuch tenant and his heirs, let the father covenant for himſelf, and his wife to levy the fine; to the uſe, intent and purpoſe, ut ſupra.

Query. II. The term appears to commence only in caſe of failure of iſſue, and yet is declared to be for raiſing portions for younger children; by the proviſo ſaid B. and S. ſhall and may charge, &c. and for want of deed or will, the term to be void; Is the word "ſhall" to be conſidered as compulſive on B. and S. to charge the premiſes with ſome ſum not exceeding two hundred pounds in favor of younger children, and have ſuch younger children by virtue of ſuch term, and the truſts declared thereof any veſted claim or intereſt at law or in equity in or to ſaid ſum, or any part thereof? And will ſaid term and ſuch claim or intereſt as aforeſaid, (if any ſuch there now be,) be barred by the common recovery, intended to be ſuffered according to ſuch directions as ſhall be given in anſwer to the firſt Query?

* This opinion was given after the determination of the cauſe of Perrin and Blake, by Lord Mansfield, but before his lordſhip's determination was reverſed in the Exchequer Chamber. *

ſum of five ſhillings of lawful, &c. to them in hand paid by the ſaid J. H. at or before, &c. the receipt, &c. and for divers other good cauſes and conſiderations them the ſaid J. A. and M. his wife, and G. A. thereunto moving, have bargained and ſold, and by theſe preſents do, &c. unto the ſaid J. H. his heirs and aſſigns, all that meſſuage or tenement, &c. to have and to hold the ſaid meſſuages, buildings, Bargain and ſale. Habendum.

It is ſo contrary to natural juſtice, that I cannot conceive the parties mean to leave the younger children without ſome proviſion; yet I am obliged to anſwer the query, and muſt ſay, that the term lying behind the eſtate tail, and the charge to be created under the truſts of the term being a diſcretionary power, which both the parents jointly, or the ſurvivor ſeparately, may or may not exerciſe, the term for years, and conſequently all claim of the younger children, under the truſts thereof, will be barred by the recovery.

CASE.

H. H. by will, dated 6th November 1752, gave all his meſſuages, &c. in B. to his wife for life, remainder to J. H. and E. W. and W. B. and their heirs, upon ſpecial truſt to pay thereout a reaſonable maintenance to his daugh ter J. M. during the life of H. M. her huſband; and upon further truſt to convey ſaid premiſes at the death of H. M. and all their right, &c. to ſaid J. and her heirs, if ſhe ſurvived her huſband; but if ſhe died before her huſband, then truſtees to allow a maintenance out of ſaid premiſes to all the children of ſaid J. during the life of H. M. and after H.'s death he directed the truſtees and the heirs of the ſurvivor to convey ſaid premiſes (J. being dead) to ſuch ſon and ſons as ſhe ſhould happen to have born of her body, and living at death of ſaid H. and to the heirs of his and their bodies reſpectively, according to their ſeniority, and for want of ſuch ſon or ſons, then to the daughters, and to the heirs of their ſeveral and reſpective bodies lawfully iſſuing, and in default of ſuch iſſue, he directed ſaid truſtees and the heirs of the ſurvivor, to convey ſaid premiſes to the ſecond ſon of his brother J. H. and his heirs for ever, if he ſhould be then living, but if dead, then to his eldeſt brother and his heirs for ever, paying to his ſiſters or ſiſter eighty pounds.

J. died before her huſband, leaving two children, viz. H. and E.

H. died under twenty-one years, ſans iſſue.

H. H. the father, is ſince dead, and a ſon of J. H. was then and is ſtill living.

E. the daughter and only child of E. married one S. who is dead, and ſhe is ſince married to H. W. and is now living. All the truſtees are dead, and no conveyance is yet made of the eſtate purſuant to the truſt, and the heir of the ſurviving truſtee refuſes to make any conveyance of the legal eſtate to W. and wife.

Query, Will a fine and recovery, ſuffered by W. and wife, of this eſtate, ſhe being now ceſtui que truſt, but the legal intereſt veſted in another, deſtroy both the entail to the iſſue of her body, and the remainder to the ſecond ſon of J. H.?

A. I think that as E. is ceſtui que truſt intail of ſaid land, ſhe may, with her huſband, bar the equitable entail without the truſtee joining in any act for that purpoſe; all that is neceſſary for her and her huſband to do, is, to follow the ſame method for barring this eſtate tail as it would have been neceſſary for them to uſe had this been a legal eſtate, and a fine and recovery by them (they both being vouched in the recovery) will effectually bar the entail to the iſſue of Mrs. W.'s body, and to all the remainder men named in the bill. But a fine is not abſolutely neceſſary.

Query. II. If the legal eſtate had not been veſted in W. and wife, they would have deſtroyed the entail in this manner: They would have levied a fine of it to ſome friend as of this Trinity Term; after which they would have conveyed the eſtate to him in fee by leaſe and releaſe, to make him tenant to the præcipe, and declared the uſe of the fine in confirmance thereof; and in Michaelmas Term a recovery would have been ſuffered, with voucher of W. and wife: Ought the ſame method now to be purſued in the caſe of this truſt eſtate, or wherein ought there to be a variation? And particularly, ſhould not a tenant to the præcipe be made by bargain and ſale inrolled, rather than by leaſe and releaſe?

A. The method propoſed is a very good one, but there is no abſolute occaſion to levy any fine. The huſband and wife may this vacation by leaſe and releaſe, or bargain and ſale, (which is better) convey to a friend to make him tenant for a recovery, and then a writ of entry returnable next term may be brought againſt the tenant, and then he may vouch W. and wife, and they vouch the common vouchee, and in the releaſe or bargain and ſale the uſes of the recovery muſt be declared as they think fit to appoint, and her being vouched in the recovery, will as effectually bar her as a fine, though a feme covert; but ſome perſons will, for greater caution, adviſe feme coverts to levy fines, when they are to ſuffer recoveries to obviate all doubts, which, in my opinion, is not neceſſary. I have before mentioned, that by this method the iſſue of Mrs. W. and all the remainders, will be barred.

Further Queries on this CASE.

In all caſes determined upon theſe truſts, it ſeems laid down as a general maxim that ceſtui que truſt muſt uſe the ſame method for deſtroying eſtates tail and remainders, as if the legal eſtate had been veſted in him. How can, therefore this ceſtui que truſt (being a feme covert) convey her eſtate to a friend, ſo as to make him tenant to the præcipe, and to have a good freehold therein, without the help of a fine, for if the legal eſtate had been in her, ſhe muſt certainly have levied a fine for this purpoſe?

If the remainder in the preſent caſe had not been limited over, but had been in ceſtui que truſt, there would then have been no occaſion for both a fine and a recovery; for a fine alone would have barred the entail, or a recovery with a ſingle voucher would have done it, and in the latter caſe the writ of entry would have been brought againſt her and her huſband, who would have had no occaſion to make a tenant to the præcipe; but where it is neceſſary to have a double vouchee, how can a good tenant to the præcipe be made by a ceſtui que truſt, who is a feme covert, without a fine, ſince it is laid down as a maxim that ceſtui que truſt is to purſue the ſame methods for deſtroying entails and remainders on his eſtate as are made uſe of for the ſame purpoſes by the owner of a legal eſtate?

A. When a man marries a woman who is ſeiſed in fee or in tail of land, he gains an eſtate of freehold in her right, and he alone, or they two, may, by any of the common conveyances, paſs ſuch an eſtate to the grantee as to make him, him, at leaſt, tenant of the freehold; ſo then the difficulty there is cleared: for though the ceſtui que truſt is a feme covert, and a feme covert's inheritance cannot be conveyed away by her otherwiſe than by a fine, yet ſhe joining only in the preſent conveyance with her huſband, and the freehold paſſing by this act, ſhe does as much in this caſe as would be neceſſary for her to do if ſhe had had a legal eſtate tail, that is, ſhe comes in by voucher, and there is not any occaſion for a fine.

CASE.

W. B. by will, dated 2d June 1738, deviſes (inter al') unto his grand-daughter A. P. ſeveral pieces of land, &c. and alſo gave to his grand-daughter M. R. ſeveral other lands, &c. and to his grand daughter E. W. other lands, and if any of them ſhould die, then the ſurvivors ſhould equally ſhare the ſaid lands, and if two of them die without iſſue, the ſurvivor ſhould have the whole; but if they all die, having no children of their own bodies, then he gave all the ſaid lands to his ſiſter's ſon W. C. and his heirs.

Query. If the three deviſees P. R. and W. have not each of them, by implication of law, an eſtate tail in the lands reſpectively deviſed to them with remainder to C. in fee? Or what other eſtate hath each of the ſaid deviſees in the premiſes?

A. I conceive that P. R. and W. had each of them an eſtate tail in the lands to them reſpectively deviſed, with croſs remainders, in failure of iſſue of any of them, to the other two in tail, with a further remainder to the laſt of them in tail in caſe two of them failed, with remainder in fee to W. C.

Query. Can Mrs. E. L. with her huſband, bar her eſtate tail in the premiſes deviſed to her, and in a moiety of the lands deviſed to A. P. with the remainders thereon depending, by ſuffering a recovery with ſingle voucher thereof? Or, will ſhe be obliged to ſuffer a recovery with double voucher, and, for that purpoſe, firſt to levy a fine thereof to ſome friend to make him tenant to the præcipe, upon a writ of entry, before the recovery with double vouchers can be ſuffered? And can a tenant to the præcipe of a feme covert's legal eſtate be made by any other conveyance than a fine?

As Mrs. W. is now married to Mr. L. he by that marriage has gained an eſtate of freehold, in her right, in the lands originally allotted to her in tail, and in a moiety of thoſe which have devolved on her from A. P. who is dead without iſſue, and if Mr. L. and his wife, by leaſe and releaſe, convey to a friend to make him tenant, &c. and thereupon a writ of entry is brought, and tenant appear, and vouches L. and wife, and they vouch common vouchee, and thereupon a recovery with double voucher be had (for recoveries with ſingle voucher are now diſuſed) of the premiſes in the common form. This will, I conceive, be a good bar to the eſtate tail and remainder, and there will be no occaſion for a fine.

*Bargain and Sale to be inrolled, declaring the Uſes of a * Fine levied of an Advowſon*, &c.

THIS Indenture made, &c. between the Right Honourable the Lord D. H. of, &c. and the Right Honourable the Lady A. H. his wife, daughter of the moſt Noble R. late Duke of, &c. deceaſed, of the one part, and R. B. of the city of W. Eſquire, and Recorder thereof, of the other part, Witneſſeth, That

* C A S E.

A. B. being ſeiſed in fee of the perpetual advowſon of H. on his marriage with J. R. conveyed ſame to two truſtees and their heirs, upon the following truſts, viz.

To the uſe of ſaid A. B. for life, remainder to the truſtees during his life, to ſupport contingent remainders; then to ſaid J. R. for life, and after both their deaths, to the uſe of the iſſue of that marriage; in default to J. R.'s iſſue by another huſband, and the reverſion and remainder to ſaid A. B. &c.

Not having iſſue, they levied a fine of ſaid advowſon only to defeat the aforeſaid uſes to the iſſue of the wife, by another huſband, but not to alter the reverſion in fee to A. B. and it does not appear that any declaration was made at that time.

Soon after the fine was levied, A. B. made his will, and deviſed ſaid advowſon to his wife, her heirs and aſſigns for ever.

About two years after a deed was executed by A. B. and wife, and the conuſee of the fine, reciting that the ſame was levied for barring all contingent eſtates at any time limited of the premiſes, and then declaring that the ſaid fine was intended to be and enure, and to have enured to the uſe of ſaid A. B. his heirs and aſſigns.

A. B. died without altering or revoking his will, and from the time of his deceaſe, his ſaid wife, and all thoſe claiming under her, have continued ſeiſed of ſaid advowſon, and have more than once preſented to the living.

Mr. H. who purchaſed ſaid advowſon by proper aſſurances under the wife's title, hath lately been informed of a pretence ſet up by the heir at law of A. B. ſuggeſting that the deed declaring the uſe of the fine being made ſubſequent to the will, amounted to a revocation thereof, although that very deed expreſsly declares that the fine had already enured to uſe of A. B. in fee, which was no new uſe nor alteration of the fee that was in him before the fine, or that afterwards reſulted.

Q. Whether the deed declaring the uſes of the fine was a revocation of the will?

Anſ. A. and B. tenants in common of lands in fee, A. by his will deviſes his moiety in fee, after making the will, A. and B. made partition by deed and fine, declaring the uſe.

As to one moiety in ſeveralty to A. in fee.

As to the other in ſeveralty to B. in fee.

In this caſe the Judges of B. R. certified to the Lord Chancellor that they were all of opinion that the will of A. was not revoked by the deed and fine levied in purſuance thereof, and that the ſaid A.'s purparty of the lands contained in the deed and fine, did paſs by the will of ſaid A. and the Chancellor decreed accordingly, and ordered that the truſts in the will ſhould be eſtabliſhed.——Luther againſt Hidley or Kidby. 9th April, 1730.

Here the fine as well as the deed were both after the will, which is a ſtronger caſe.

I think the above caſe is full to the purpoſe, and cannot ſay that Beckwith's caſe is a caſe in point; though in that it was held that no alteration was made of the old uſe.

And

H.* and the ſaid Lady A. his wife, to the ſaid R. B. and his heirs, and all and every other fine or fines, conveyances and aſſurances whatſoever, heretofore had, made, levied, ſuffered and executed, or hereafter to be had, made, levied, ſuffered and executed of the ſaid premiſes, by or between the ſaid parties to theſe preſents, or any of them alone or together, with any other perſon or perſons, ſhall be and enure To the only proper Uſe and Behoof of the ſaid *R. ---

And if it were admitted in A. B.'s caſe that the uſes which were not contingent, reſulted; yet I do not conceive that it made any alteration of the old reverſion in fee, or that A. B. took a new fee, of which the courſe of deſcent would have been altered.

W. RIVETT.

Mr. Wilbraham's Opinion upon the Whole.

The firſt queſtion that occurs in this caſe, is, Whether the uſes of the fine reſulted to the wife for life, remainder to the huſband in fee before the declaration of the uſes? and I incline to think that they did, and think that it is ſupported by the authority of Lord Coke in Beckwith's caſe, Co. 58: and if this be ſo, then as the will was made after the fine levied, but before the declaration of uſes, the declaration of uſes having limited the eſtate, both by A. B. and his wife, to ſaid A. B. in fee, has varied the intereſt of the teſtator by his own act ſubſequent to the making of the will; by means whereof his eſtate given by the will becomes an eſtate in poſſeſſion, which would otherwiſe be an eſtate in reverſion. The old uſe is not altered as to the reverſion; and though the wife is the object of the gift, yet this will not, I think, vary the caſe; and as the teſtator has thought fit to experience this power of declaring the uſes of the eſtate ſubſequent to the making his will, and as a little matter has been thought ſufficient to revoke a will, I incline to think that this act may amount to a revocation, but am far from thinking it a clear caſe: for I think that the doctrine of revocations has been carried too far; but I think it ſuch a caſe, as I cannot adviſe any one to purchaſe under the title derived from the wife by this deviſe.

R. WILBRAHAM.
26th of February, 1753.

Mr. Filmore's Opinion.

I apprehend when a fine is levied and no uſes declared, or a void declaration, as in Beckwith's caſe, 2 Report, That in both caſes the uſes reſult, and the conuſors have the ſame eſtate in the uſe as they had before; the fine levied after the will was a revocation of the deviſe in the will, and unleſs it was afterwards re-publiſhed I do not think it ſafe to purchaſe unleſs the heir at law joins.

B. FILMORE.

The Attorney General Ryder's Opinion.

I think the declaration of the uſes of the fine, though two years after the will, was no revocation of the uſe to the wife, it declaring no uſe to the teſtator but what reſulted before on the fine, without any declaration; and referring to the fine previous to the will, as intended originally for the ſame uſe, and not ſhewing any intent to vary it, I think therefore that the purchaſer under the wife, as the caſe is ſtated, has a good right to preſent.

Sir J. W. Bart. being ſeiſed of an eſtate in tail in the county of N. had the right of preſentation to the living of H. and, upon the death of the late incumbent, was deſirous his nephew C. W. G. ſhould be preſented to the ſame; but he being then an infant of about the age of thirteen years, was incapable of accepting it: J. D. therefore requeſted to hold the ſame till ſaid C. W. G. was twenty-four years of age, or in prieſt orders; and for reſignation thereof gave a bond to the ſaid Sir J. W. in the penalty of two thouſand pounds, conditioned to reſign the ſaid living to ſaid C. W. G. at his age of twenty-four, or being in prieſt orders, at the requeſt of the ſaid Sir J. W. his heirs or aſſigns. Sir J. W. afterwards died, leaving ſaid C. W. G. (who was then under twenty-four, and not in prieſt orders) and appointed J. G. his father, and two others, truſtees and executors of his will, and left Sir C. W. Baronet, his eldeſt ſon and heir, an infant. Said J. D. and ſaid Sir C. W. combining together, the former refuſes to reſign the living, or the other to preſent C. W. G. thereto, according to the bond.

Q. Can ſaid J. D. be compelled to reſign ſaid living, and Sir C. W. be obliged to preſent C. W. G. thereto? And what methods muſt be taken to oblige ſaid J. D. to reſign ſaid living, and Sir C. W. to preſent C. W. G. thereto?

A. I am of opinion this bond is good both in law and equity, and an action may be maintained upon it, in caſe of a refuſal to reſign upon requeſt within twelve months after C. W. G. ſhall attain twenty-four years. In order to maintain the action, a demand muſt be made by the heir or aſſigns of Sir J. W. or by ſomebody on his and their behalf, within the twelve months after that age.

The action muſt be brought in the name of Sir J. W.'s executors; C. W. G. cannot be entitled to inſtitution and induction without a preſentation, which ſhould be by Sir C. W. the infant, who, if he refuſes, may be compelled by Bill in Chancery to preſent him.

In 1778, Mr. F. G. purchaſed of J. H. and *T. In November 1778, Mr. F. G. entered into an agreement with Sir J. T. "for the ſale of all his right to "ſaid living after the term that his ſon F. G. junior, could legally hold the ſame." And it was thereby agreed, that every turn and all right of preſentation till his ſon F. G. then at Cambridge, could be legally inducted in the ordinary courſe and time preſcribed by law, ſhould remain with and be the ſole property of F. G. the father, and after that time be the property of Sir J. T.

About June 1779, ſaid living became vacant, and F. G. preſented T. T. thereto, who gave a bond in the penalty of two thouſand pounds to reſign the living upon requeſt; and T. T.'s father alſo gave a bond to ſame purport, in penalty of one thouſand pounds.

In October laſt, a commiſſion of bankrupt iſſued againſt ſaid A. G. and F. G. and they were declared bankrupts, and all their eſtates and effects have been legally conveyed and aſſigned to the aſſignees.

No act has been done to ratify ſaid agreement with Sir J. T. Mr. F. G. is about twenty years of age, and has been upwards of two years at the univerſity.

Q. Can the aſſignees ſell all the turns and avoidances in ſaid living until F. G. junior, arrives at the age of twenty-four, (when it is preſumed he will obtain prieſt orders, and be enabled to hold, or be preſented and inducted to ſaid living?) Or for what other period, and what eſtate and intereſt have ſaid aſſignees and Sir J. T. reſpectively, in ſaid living? And in what manner, and for what time can the aſſignees diſpoſe of their right and intereſt in ſame? And can they ſupport an action againſt either, and which of ſaid Mr. *T.*s on ſaid bonds, in caſe Mr. T. junior, ſhould refuſe to reſign ſaid living upon requeſt? And can the biſhop be compelled, and by whom, and in what manner, to accept of Mr. T.'s reſignation?

A. I think the aſſignees may ſell all ſuch chance to turns of preſenting to this living as may happen before F. G. junior, ſhall attain the age of twenty-four: ſubject to that right the inheritanee muſt be conveyed to Sir J. T. The conveyance of the chance to turns may be a common bargain and ſale. The aſſignees may ſupport an action to procure an avoidance for legal purpoſes, but equity will not ſuffer them to make uſe of the bond to procure an immediate reſignation, ſo as to ſell the next turn; that would be deemed ſimonaical. If F. G. had not become bankrupt, and had made uſe of the bond to procure a vacancy for the purpoſe of fairly preſenting his ſon, or any other perſon, without receiving any conſideration for ſuch preſentation, I take it for granted the biſhop would accept the reſignation, becauſe there would be no other way of preventing Mr. T. from paying the whole penalty of the bond, as T. is bound to procure the acceptance of the reſignation. But if the reſignation is applied for, for the purpoſe of carrying the aſſignees intereſt to better market, it cannot be compelled.
